GENTLE WARBLOOD X LOOKING FOR A CONSIDERATE RIDER

Welt Freiden, paddock name "Joe," is a 16.3, 12-year-old golden chestnut Warmblood X gelding by legendary stallion Weltmeyer. He is sound, willing, and confirmed at novice, and has all his lateral work. He has competed at both novice and elementary. Joe is easy to handle for shoeing, and floats without a problem. He was recently featured in an in-hand DVD, and quickly adapted to the cameras, cables and unusual circumstances - he never put a foot wrong, typical of his quiet nature. Joe is a very affectionate horse.

He is unspoiled, with a lovely mouth and disposition and he will do best with a rider who has good, soft hands and wants a friend and partner to learn on, and with, and for whom competing not the primary reason for owning a horse.
